

Privacy Policy

We respect your privacy, and we know that trusting a website with your information is not something to take for granted. This Privacy Policy explains what personal information we collect through this website (the "Site"), why we collect it, how we protect it, and the rights you have over it, in accordance with British Columbia's Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA).

1. Information We Collect

We may collect the following when you interact with the Site:

- Contact information you provide (name, email, phone number) through forms or booking requests
- Messages or details you submit describing your inquiry
- Basic technical information (browser type, general location, pages visited) through standard analytics
- Cookies or similar technology used to remember preferences and understand how the Site is used, where applicable

2. How We Use Your Information

We use the information collected to:

- Respond to inquiries and provide requested services or quotes
- Maintain records of client communication
- Improve the Site based on general usage patterns

We do not sell or rent your personal information to third parties, and we do not use it for purposes unrelated to why you gave it to us.

3. Consent

By submitting information through the Site, you consent to its collection and use as described in this policy. You may withdraw consent at any time by contacting us, subject to legal or contractual restrictions, though this may limit our ability to respond to a request already in progress.

4. Third-Party Service Providers

The Site may use third-party services to operate certain features, such as form submission handling or website hosting. These providers process data only as needed to deliver that functionality and are not authorized to use it for any other purpose. Some providers may be based outside Canada, meaning your information could be processed on servers located in another country as part of normal service delivery.

5. Data Retention

We retain personal information only as long as needed to fulfill the purpose it was collected for, or as required by law, after which it is securely deleted or de-identified.

6. Security

We take reasonable technical and administrative measures to protect the information you provide from unauthorized access, loss, or misuse. No system is perfectly secure, but we work to keep ours reliable and take any concern about a potential breach seriously.

7. Children's Privacy

This Site is not directed at children, and we do not knowingly collect personal information from children. If you believe a child has provided us with personal information, please contact us so we can remove it.

8. Your Rights

You may request access to, correction of, or deletion of the personal information we hold about you by contacting us using the details below. If you have a concern about how we have handled your information that we are unable to resolve directly, you may also contact the Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner for British Columbia.

9. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes to the Site or our practices. We will post the updated version here.

10. Contact

For privacy questions or requests, contact us using the contact information provided elsewhere on this website. We aim to respond promptly to any privacy inquiry.
